Code	ADJM or ADJT
Target students	Adults, all levels
Duration	10 weekly sessions on Mondays or Tuesdays
Start & end time	18:45-21:15
Venue	Technology workshop, in same building to the right of The Peacock Gallery. Enter the workshop through the external door at the corner of the building.
Tutor	Cathy Newell Price
About the course/workshop	Design and create unique pieces of jewellery working in silver, mixed metals and other materials. Tools are provided. Current students are offered priority to renew each term. Available places are then offered first to those on our waiting list. Please contact us to join the waiting list. Extra information about enrolment and attendance may be found in how to book on our website.
What to bring	Tools are provided but if you have any small jewellery tools, do bring them along. You should bring an :apron or overall, notebook and pencil.
Materials for sale	Silver and other materials are available to purchase from Community Arts' stock during your classes. A deposit is required to open an account for purchasing materials. Further details are on our website.
Safety	Please wear closed-toe shoes and tie back long hair. Please don't wear scarves or loose clothing – this could be hazardous in the workshop.
Other details	There are no refreshments facilities on site but there are shops nearby. A map of our site and directions to the school may be found on our website. See on our website for other information including terms and conditions.
Parking	The site can be busy, particularly on Saturday mornings. If you park around the back of school, i.e. beyond the sharp right turn opposite the entrance to Aldryngton School (6, on the school plan), please tell your tutor who will pass this on to the caretaker who locks the gates at night. Note that the caretakers'/site controllers' tel. numbers can be found on the glass lobby to reception.
Tutor biog.	Cathy is a designer maker of contemporary jewellery. Her work is sold throughout the UK in galleries, exhibitions and shows. She has been running her popular silver jewellery classes for students of all levels at Maiden Erlegh for many years. Her classes are relaxed and friendly with regular demonstrations of techniques and projects. She will encourage you to develop your skills in order to create the pieces you want to make. "
