About the course/workshop	An opportunity to create at least two mirrors to take home. Throughout the course of the morning there will be demonstrations of printing/stencilling techniques as necessary. There will also be an opportunity to respond to a story and create work on the theme of gardens. Plenty of guidance, ideas, inspiration, and resource materials. Alternatively students may work independently from their own resources.
What students should bring	Acrylic paints and a selection of brushes (fine to medium pointed) A selection of feathers and leaves suitable to print from. Wet wipes (and aprons if prone to messiness) Resource images or I-pad /phone for independent work if desired.
Materials for sale from tutor	Mirrors £3 each available to purchase on the day. Cash or cheques please.
Other details	Please bring your own lunch and refreshments. A map of our site and directions to the school may be found on our website. See our website for other information including terms and conditions.
Parking	The site can be busy, particularly on Saturday mornings. If you park around the back of school, i.e. beyond the sharp right turn opposite the entrance to Aldryngton School (6, on the school plan), please tell your tutor who will pass this on to the caretaker who locks the gates at night. Note that the caretakers'/site controllers' tel. numbers can be found on the glass lobby to reception.
Tutor biog.	Sue Bridge has taught Art in a variety of settings for way too many years than she cares to remember! She has worked with children aged 7-16yrs and is now finding teaching adult beginners extremely rewarding. Sue is particularly interested in the therapeutic aspects of art and nature and sees making art as a means of maintaining good mental health, enriching our lives and bringing like-minded people together. Sue is a member of RGA and HGA and has exhibited her work locally for a number of years.
