

Privacy Notice: for parents and pupils/students

We at Maiden Erlegh Trust collect and hold personal information relating to our pupils/students within Trust schools and may also receive information about them from their previous school, parents/guardians, local authority, other appropriate organisations and/or the Department for Education (DfE).

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, address and parental contact details)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- National Curriculum assessment and external examination results
- Relevant medical information
- Special Educational Needs information
- Safeguarding information
- Exclusions/behavioural information
- Biometric Data
- Post 16 learning information

For pupils/students enrolling for post 14 qualifications, the Learning Records Service will give us the unique learner number (ULN) and may also give us details about pupils/students' learning or qualifications. We may share this information with relevant local authority services to support pupils/students' special educational or pastoral needs or to make referrals for additional support.

Why we collect and use this information

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to keep pupils safe and healthy
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to help you to decide what to do after you leave school

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use pupil information under section 537A of the Education Act 1996, section 83 of the Children Act 1989 and The Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2006 and subsequent amendments. We also comply with Article 6(1)(c) and Article 9(2)(b) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)/Data Protection Act 2018 (not yet law).

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation/Data Protection Act 2018 (not yet in law), we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information or if you have a choice.

Storing pupil data

We hold pupil data on local and some cloud-based computer systems, as well as on paper. There are strict controls on who can see your information.

For our primary aged children, we hold your education records securely until you change school. Your records will then be transferred to your new school, where they will be retained until you reach the age of 25, after which they are securely destroyed.

For our secondary pupils/students we hold your education records securely and retain them from your date of birth until you reach the age of 25, after which they are securely destroyed.

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that pupils attend after leaving us
- our Local Authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- services that support teaching, learning, assessment, safeguarding and school management.
- catering services
- parental communications services
- health services
- providers of extra-curricular services such as music services, before/after school clubs (where the child/young person accesses these services)
- Online services

Why we share pupil information

We only share information about pupils with others where the law and our policies allow us to, or where we have obtained any necessary consent. We will not share your data if you have advised us that you do not want it shared, unless it is the only way we can make sure you stay safe, or we are legally required to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the DfE under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example, via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

Youth support services Pupils aged 13+

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we also pass pupil information to our Local Authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
- careers advisers

The information shared is limited to the child's name, address and date of birth. However where a parent or guardian provides their consent, other information relevant to the provision of youth support services will be shared. This right is transferred to the child / pupil once they reach the age 16.

Pupils aged 16+

We will also share certain information about pupils aged 16+ with our Local Authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996. This enables them to provide services as follows:

- post-16 education and training providers
- youth support services
- careers advisers

For more information about services for young people, please visit the appropriate local authority website: www.wokingham.gov.uk or <http://www.reading.gov.uk/> or _https://www.oxfordshire.gov.uk or /https://www.bracknell-forest.gov.uk/

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013. To find out more about the NPD, go to:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The DfE may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the DfE data sharing process, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

For information about which organisations the department has provided pupil information, (and for which project), please visit the following website:

To contact DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>

Organisations fighting or identifying crime may use their legal powers to contact DfE to request access to individual level information relevant to detecting that crime. Whilst numbers fluctuate slightly over time, DfE typically supplies data on around 600 pupils per year to the Home Office and roughly 1 per year to the Police.

For information about which organisations the Department has provided pupil information, (and for which project) or to access a monthly breakdown of data share volumes with Home Office and the Police please visit the following website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dfe-external-data-shares>

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's educational record, please contact the school using the details at the end of this document.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

If you would like to get a copy of the information about you that the Local Authority shares with the DfE or post-16 providers or how they use your information, please contact Data Protection Officer, at the appropriate local authority.
