About the course/workshop	Be prepared to free up and let go! Using bold colours and loose energetic mark-making with big brushes and palette knives we will create lively and dynamic landscape paintings. Add in a bit of spatter and flourishes of oil pastel for that finishing touch! Lots of step-by-step demos & individual help.... a basic knowledge of acrylics is useful.
What students should bring	Heavy watercolour paper or canvas or acrylic paper (plus a few sheets of any mid-weight paper for exercises) Drawing pencil, rubber, Inspiration / source material / sketches of landscapes Paintbrushes, palette knives if you have them, mixing palette with flat area (a tear-off palette is fine), kitchen roll, water pot Oil pastels / Neocolour crayons if you have them (tutor will also bring some) Acrylic paints – primary colours, black & white plus any others you may have Old clothes / apron, Please bring a mask to comply with COVID risk assessments.
Materials for sale from tutor
Other details	Please bring your own lunch and refreshments. A map of our site and directions to the school may be found on our website. See our website for other information including terms and conditions.
Parking	The site can be busy, particularly on Saturday mornings. If you park around the back of school, i.e. beyond the sharp right turn opposite the entrance to Aldryngton School (6, on the school plan), please tell your tutor who will pass this on to the caretaker who locks the gates at night.
Tutor biog.	Karen is an enthusiastic and experienced tutor specialising in printmaking and acrylics. Her method of teaching is both informal but instructional, aiming to bring out everyone's creativity in an encouraging and friendly atmosphere. Having studied design and illustration at art college, she worked for many years as a commercial artist. She now divides her time between teaching and pursuing her own work, with involvement in exhibitions, studio trails and private commissions.
