About the course/workshop	Design and create unique pieces of jewellery working in silver, mixed metals and other materials. Tools are provided. Current students are offered priority to renew each term. Available places are then offered first to those on our waiting list. Please contact us to join the waiting list. Extra information about enrolment and attendance may be found in how to book on our website.
What to bring	Tools are provided but if you have any small jewellery tools, do bring them along. You should bring an apron or overall, notebook and pencil.
Materials for sale	Silver and other materials are available to purchase from Community Arts' stock during your classes. A deposit is required to open an account for purchasing materials. Further details are on our website.
Safety	Please wear closed-toe shoes and tie back long hair. Please don't wear scarves or loose clothing – this could be hazardous in the workshop. Please bring your own eye protection safety goggles
Other details	There are no refreshments facilities on site but there are shops nearby. A map of our site and directions to the school may be found on our website. See on our website for other information including terms and conditions.
Parking	The site can be busy, particularly on Saturday mornings. If you park around the back of school, i.e. beyond the sharp right turn opposite the entrance to Aldryngton School (6, on the school plan), please tell your tutor who will pass this on to the caretaker who locks the gates at night.
Tutor biog.	Machi's interests in modern art, particularly in sculpture and minimalism, influence her work. Jewellery has been a full time pursuit since early 2007, with work regularly shown at galleries, fairs and exhibitions. Machi was Artist in Residence at South Hill Park Arts Centre in Bracknell from January 2010 - December 2011. Combining her studio practice with teaching, Machi runs jewellery classes in Reading, Berkshire and Chesham, Buckinghamshire.
