Dear Parent/Guardian

Year 13 Study Conferences - March 2 and Prelims 21-25 March

I am writing to you regarding the forthcoming study conferences, which will be held on Wednesday 2 March, and the prelims which will be held during the week of 21-25 March.

The normal school timetable will be suspended on Wednesday 2 March, students will only be expected to attend the study conferences scheduled below. The study conferences will focus on examination techniques and revision strategies. Any student who has a clash has been directed by the KS5 pastoral team as to which conference to attend. In the two weeks prior to their prelims, students will not be set any substantial pieces of homework other than revision. During the week of 21-15 March, there will be no timetabled lessons, students will only be required to attend their examinations. Prelim results will be published on 3 May.
