Dear Parent/Guardian

Year 10 Autumn Term Text Choices

In Year 10, all pupils will need two texts for the English Literature GCSE. We study 'An Inspector Calls' upon our return in September and will go on to 'Macbeth' before Christmas.

Your son or daughter will need to have a copy of An Inspector Calls by JB Priestley as soon as lessons start in September.

It is helpful if students have the same versions of the text for use in lessons so that we can all refer to the same page numbers etc. For this reason, we recommend the following editions:

'An Inspector Calls' by JB Priestley Publisher: Heinemann. ISBN-10: 0435232827

'Macbeth' by William Shakespeare Publisher: Cambridge University Press; 3rd edition (20 Jan. 2014) ISBN-10: 1107615496

If your child would prefer a dyslexia friendly version of the text, please get in touch with the English department for recommendations via mesoffice@maidenerleghtrust.org.

The editions above are both very popular school editions and can usually be picked up very cheaply second hand if purchased well in advance. We recommend that you do not leave the purchase of these texts until just before school starts as they can be in short supply at the start of term.

If your son or daughter is eligible for Pupil Premium funding, then they will be given copies of both texts in September.

Yours sincerely

Ms K Terry
Head of KS4 English
