Dear Parent/Guardian

Year 7 - PGL Adventure Trip – Expression of Interest

Maiden Erlegh School are inviting up to 140 students to the PGL centre in Osmington Bay in Dorset. This will be a 5-day trip Monday 1 June 2026 until Friday 5 June 2026.

Students will take part in adventure and team building activities some being based on water. The approximate cost of the trip is around £673 per student. However, this cost will depend on confirmed numbers attending so could go up or down from this. The payment will be payable through ParentPay. Payment is not required at this stage.

If you are entitled to pupil premium, then you can indicate that you would like to use this money as part of the contribution by ticking the box on the Expression of Interest form below. Each trip is reviewed on a case-by-case basis and decisions around the support we can offer is dependent on a range of factors to run this trip, we would like to ensure that enough students would like to attend. Please note that if there are insufficient contributions to cover the cost of this trip, there may be no alternative but to cancel.

More details about the venue and activities can be found on the website for Osmington Bay <https://schoolsandgroups.pgl.co.uk/centres/osmington-bay/>

Please complete the form below by 9am on Thursday 25 September 2025 to share your child's interest in attending this event.
