Dear Parent/Guardian

Dead Poets School

On Monday 9 November, during Lessons 2 and 3, Year 7 will have a unique opportunity to participate in a free session from Dead Poets School. The session is led by a small cast of professional actors who will guide students in exploring the session's key question: What is Poetry?

Year 7 students will be studying poetry in one of their English units later this academic year and poetry also remains a key component of the GCSE and A Level English Literature curriculum, so we are excited about a session that prepares them for these demands.

As this session runs within the school day there are no adjustments to lesson timings and minimal disruption to learning.

We are thrilled to welcome Dead Poets School to Maiden Erlegh. We hope your child enjoys the session and that it inspires an interest in poetry that extends well beyond Year 7.

Yours sincerely

V. Cripps
