Dear Parent/Guardian

Anti-Bullying Week, 12 – 16 November – Odd Socks Day

To mark the end of Anti-Bullying Week, we are taking part in Odd Socks Day. On Friday 16 November students will be able to wear, in addition to their normal school uniform, the most crazy odd socks or tights that they can find. Students will be invited to make a voluntary contribution of £1 for taking part.

All fundraising will be split between the Anti-Bullying Alliance and the Inclusion Department at Maiden Erlegh School. This support facility is available to all students to use throughout their school career.

We look forward to seeing all of the children in the most amazing and different coloured socks and tights that they can find. They will be helping to raise awareness of a topic we take very seriously in school, support a worthwhile cause and celebrate on this day what makes us all unique.

Yours sincerely

Mrs S Bendall
Assistant Headteacher
